

Events for Kids in New York City This Weekend - June 15- June 17

 cityguideny.com/article/Events-for-Kids-in-New-York-City-This-Weekend-June-15-June-17

June 10, 2018

Neighborhood Guides

City Guide NY

Photo: Michael Dougherty/Flickr

While New York City is often thought of as a playground for adults, there's still plenty of fun activities with children. From museum specials to readings to musical performances, City Guide's collection of weekend events for kids in New York City will have your little ones never wanting to leave the concrete jungle.

Taste of Jewish Culture Street Festival - Sixth Avenue

June 17, 2018 - New York

The Workmen's Circle fourth annual "Taste of Jewish Culture" Street Festival, illustrating that “Diversity is Delicious,” returns this Father’s Day, featuring dozens of food purveyors putting their original ethnic spins on traditional Jewish foods, on Sunday, June 17 from 11:00 AM to 6:00 PM on Sixth Avenue between 48th and 49th Streets (rain or shine). The festival will include music, dance, and family-friendly activities, including arts-and-crafts. Participants to date include: Bonsai Kakigori; Rebecca’s Cake Pops; Danny Macaroons; La Newyorkina; Krafted by Karli; What’s the Dillaz; Harlem Seafood Soul; Ben’s Kosher Deli; Zabari Catering; P.O.P. Cake Shop; Paprika Kosher; Breads Bakery; Raw BK Organic Kitchen; Zola Bakes; Mysttik Masaala; Wandering Que; Gluten Free.Sy, StuFFfed; Nachos Libre; Empanada Papa; Glazed & Confused, Cutco/ Your Best Knives; Dr. Pickle; Redefined.Coffee; Stache of Goods; and Rib in a Cup.
