

Taste of Jewish Culture Street Festival

Sun Jun 17, 2018

11:00am to 6:00pm

All ages

FREE; food for various prices

The Workmen's Circle's fifth annual Taste of Jewish Culture Street Festival—a signature event featuring the city's top Jewish food vendors—sprawls across Sixth Avenue between 48th and 49th Streets and features modern takes on traditional Jewish foods, as well as performances and activities for all ages.

Participants include: Bonsai Kakigori; Rebecca's Cake Pops; Danny Macaroons; La Newyorkina; Krafted by Karli; What's the Dillaz; Harlem Seafood Soul; Ben's Kosher Deli; Zabari Catering; P.O.P. Cake Shop; Sylvia Fallas "Cooking for my People"; Paprika Kosher; Breads Bakery; Raw BK Organic Kitchen; Zola Bakes; Mysttik Masaala; Wandering Que; Gluten Free.Sy, StuFFfed; Nachos Libre; Empanada Papa; Glazed & Confused, Cutco/ Your Best Knives; Dr. Pickle; Redefined.Coffee; Stache of Goods; and Rib in a Cup.

Food isn't the only thing on the menu: the festival features dancing, performances, and instant Yiddish.

- 12:15, 1:15, 2:15, 3:15 – Aaron Alexander & NY Klezmer Series All-Stars with dance leader Sarah Myerson
- 1pm – Special performance by the Fiddler on the Roof cast, presented by the National Yiddish Theatre Folksbiene
- 2pm & 3pm – Interactive “Instant Yiddish” with Kolya Borodulin

Dads score free egg creams!

WEBSITE