

Morning Bulletin: Training Dogs in Yiddish, A Messy Real Estate Fight, Madonna's Missed Opportunity

---

 westsiderag.com/2017/09/25/morning-bulletin-yiddish-for-dogs-a-messy-real-estate-fight-madonnas-missed-opportunity

Posted on September 25, 2017 at 9:17 am by West Sider

News:

Workmen's Circle, a progressive Jewish nonprofit, is teaching people how to discipline their dogs in Yiddish in Central Park. They're attracting big crowds! "Steve Zelman, 69, from Sutton Place, Manhattan, was there with Ollie, his longhaired miniature dachshund to 'meet some nice Jewish dogs,' he said. Edna Schwartz, also 69, came in from Carroll Gardens, Brooklyn, with Puma, her miniature poodle, for the training aspect. "My family would yell at us in Yiddish, so this reminds me of my childhood,' she said. 'My dog is here to learn how to behave, listen and respond.'" The next one is October 15.

And Citi Bikes are starting to come to the area north of 110th, as we wrote a couple of weeks ago:

Citi bike coming to my 'hood! Now being installed on 110th between Amsterdam and Morningside Drive. pic.twitter.com/YsLHhENoY1

— Daniel Marks Cohen (@DMarksCohen) September 22, 2017